Overview on the States View

In the States view, you can inspect the persistent state data of the service.

Refresh PurchaseOrder V
tate:Checked_out_	_waiting_for_closing
Primary Key	Creation Time	Update Time
01,4711	2017-06-13T12:33:28.0Z	2017-06-13T12:33:28.0Z	Details	Delete
State:Purchase_ord	er_is_initializedwaiting_for_furth	er_orders
Primary Key	Creation Time	Update Time
03,4711	2017-06-13T12:34:15.0Z	2017-06-13T12:34:15.0Z	Details	Delete
02,4711	2017-06-13T12:34:04.0Z	2017-06-13T12:34:04.0Z	Details	Delete

Related Pages: • Persistent States of xUML Services • Persistent States and Signals

Refer to Persistent States of xUML Services for more information on how to view the same information on the E2E Bridge. You can read more on the concepts of persistent states and the E2E Bridge in the Reference Guide, Persistent States and Signals.

Display Element	Description
Refresh	Click Refresh to reload the window content to see changes.
Persistent State Class Dropdown	Select a persistent state class. This is only relevant for services holding data in more than one persistent state class.
Details	Click Details to inspect the persistent state object details:
	Persistent State Object Details
	Object Id 0001000551d6a47f7dab0000005 Object Primary Key 01,4711 Object Owner Is Valid true States
	State Name Token			Working
	Checked_outwaitin	Checked_outwaiting_for_dosing 0000000fa171ca9f0000273000002c10a47f7fa0				false
	Events
	Event Name	Event Id	Event Type	Creation Time	Delivery Time	Delivery Trials
	Data
	<data <br="" customerid="4711" date="2017-06-13T00:00:00.0Z" id="O1" name="Wishes UnLtd">openBalance="0" openItems="0"/></data>
						ОК
Delete	Click Delete on	a table row to dele	te this persistent s	state object.						