

Security Functions

The Bridge provides functions, which can be used in context of security issues. For more details about this topic, see section Security Model.