

Primary Key Search of Persistent State Objects

The primary key search enables you to search for a particular persistent state object in a large amount of data. Enter all key fields (in this case the id and the customerID) and click Search.

Class PurchaseOrder.PurchaseOrder

id: String

P002019002

customerID: String

1234

Search

Object Object doesn't exist.	The Bridge will either report "Object doesn't exist." or ...
--	--

Object

Primary Key	PO02019002,1234
Creation	2019-06-26 11:10:22
Last Update	2019-06-26 11:10:22
Owner ID	10

States

State	Creation	Do Activity	Retry Failed Transition
Purchase_order_is_initialized_waiting_for_further_orders	2019-06-26 11:10:22	-	Retry

Send signal: AddItemSignal >> CheckOutSignal >>

Events

Event Name	Event Type	Creation	Delivery
Leave_Purchase_order_is_initialized_waiting_for_further_orders_after_20_minutes	TIMEOUT	2019-06-26 11:10:22	2019-06-26 11:30:22

Data

```
<Data id="PO02019002" customerId="1234" name="Spring Corp." openItems="0" openBalance="0"/>
```

View Raw Data for Support Delete

... display the persistent state object details.