

Time Restricted Access

The Time Restricted Access Policy is used to allow access to an API only during certain times. The policy can be configured to apply different time restrictions to different API resources.

Policy Type

Time Restricted Access Policy

Time Restricted Access Policy Configuration

Manage the list of API routes that can be accessed at specific time and date.

Add New Restriction

Allow All Requests Matching URI

From time in the day

To time in the day

From day of the week

To day of the week

14

00

22

00

Mon

Sun

Add

Time Restrictions

Path	Accessible (UTC)
myPath/*	08:00-16:00 from Mon to Fri

Add Policy

Cancel

On this Page:

- Configuration Options

Related Pages:

- Policies
 - Assigning Policies
 - Policy Configuration

Configuration Options

Option	Type	Description	Possible Values	Default
Allow all requests matching URI	String	A regular expression used to match the request's resource path/destination. The time restriction will be applied only when the request's resource matches this pattern.	-	-
From time in the day	Time	Indicates the time of day (UTC) to begin allowing access.		08:00
To time in the day	Time	Indicates the time of day (UTC) to stop allowing access.		16:00
From day of the week	Integer	Indicates the day of week (1= Monday, 2=Tuesday etc.) to begin allowing access.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	1 (Mon)
To day of the week	Integer	Indicates the day of week (1= Monday, 2=Tuesday etc.) to stop allowing access.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7	5 (Fri)