

TIMERESTRICTED

The Time Restricted Access Policy is used to allow access to an API only during certain times. The policy can be configured to apply different time restrictions to different API resources.

Configuration Options

Time Restricted Access

Basic Configuration

Manage the list of API routes that can be accessed at specific time and date.

☐

Path

From Time (UTC)

To Time (UTC)

From Day

To Day

Path *

08:00

17:00

Mon

Fri

Regular expressions must be written in Java syntax.

Add

Delete

Items per page: 20 1-141 < > >>

Cancel

Back

Next

On this Page:

- Configuration Options
 - Basic Configuration

Related Pages:

- Policies
 - Attaching Policies

Basic Configuration

Option	Description	Possible Values	Default
Path	A regular expression used to match the request's resource path /destination. The time restriction will be applied only when the request's resource matches this pattern. Regular expressions must be written in Java syntax.	a string	-
Configure in local time (MESZ)	Enable to configure the rules in local time. The configured rules are saved and executed in UTC.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">enableddisabled	disabled
From Time (UTC)	Indicates the time of day (UTC) to begin allowing access.	a datetime value	08:00
To Time (UTC)	Indicates the time of day (UTC) to stop allowing access.	a datetime value	17:00
From Day	Indicates the day of week (1= Monday, 2=Tuesday etc.) to begin allowing access.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">MonTueWedThuFriSatSun	Mon
To Day	Indicates the day of week (1= Monday, 2=Tuesday etc.) to stop allowing access.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">MonTueWedThuFriSatSun	Fri

Click Add to create more rows in the table. Click Delete to remove selected rows.