

Anaylzer Installation Process

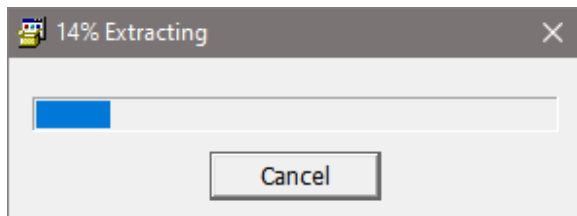

Make sure that you have administration rights and run AnalyzerInstaller_7.x.x.exe to start the installation of the Analyzer. You may get a Windows security warning that you will have to confirm.

Related Pages:

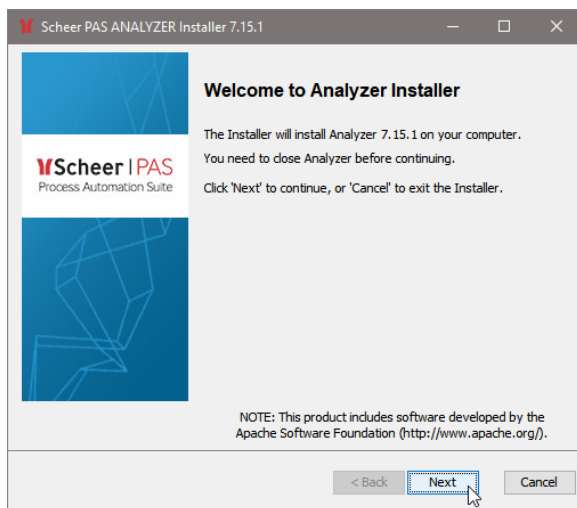

- System Requirements and Prerequisites
- Installing the Analyzer on Linux
- Uninstalling the Analyzer

Click Yes to install the Analyzer.

The Analyzer Installer is being extracted and started.

After a few seconds, the installer window opens. Follow the instructions during the installation process.

Click Next.

Please read
the license agreement carefully and accept it.

Click Next.

	Navigate to the folder where the Analyzer should be installed, and select it. The default installation location is C: \Program Files (x86) \Analyzer. Click Next.
	Select this option if you want to create a programs menu shortcut to the Analyzer. Click Next.
	Select this option if you want to create a desktop shortcut to the Analyzer. Click Next.

	This window shows a summary of the installation options. If you wish to change them, click Back. Otherwise, click Install to start the installation.
	The Analyzer is being installed.
	The Analyzer installation has been finished. Click Finish.

To start the Analyzer, double-click the Analyzer icon  on your desktop or select Analyzer from Windows Start menu.