Deleting EPC Elements

Existing elements may also be deleted from the work surface with the help of the context menu.

	Options	Open the context menu by
	Create Successor	clicking directly
Che	✓ Create Predecessor ►	element. The
Fur	Put to Front	option De lete
	Put to Background	appears.
	伫 Copy
	Cross Reference
	🖻 Delete 🕞
You delete the search.	e element and its content. eleted and are still available by using the DELETE CANCEL	selecting this option a security prompt appears. Confirm with Dele te to erase the element from your database. If the element was linked to any other spots, then only the current element will be deleted from your work area. The linked elements remains intact.

Related Pages:

- Creating New EPC
 Elements

- Copying EPC ElementsModeling Conventions

- Instances, which are situated in this process step can not be opened again after deletion. When trying to open an affected instance an error message will be displayed in the overview. The message contains name and ID of the deleted process step.
- Every function has its own ID in the database. A new function with the same name cannot therefore replace a deleted function.